MASTER OF HUMAN RIGHTS & DEMOCRATISATION 2023/2024

SLQF: 09
Credit Value : 30

One Year Programme

Master of Human Rights & Democratisation (MHRD) 2023/2024

The Master of Human Rights and Democratisation (Local) programme is designed for mid-career professionals and highly motivated graduates. The degree offers students a unique opportunity to engage first-hand with regional and international human rights as well as democratic issues, and to interact with internationally acclaimed academics, practitioners and experts.

The programme is linked to the Asia Pacific Regional programme, currently coordinated by the university of Mahidol in Thailand, and hence, students have the opportunity to interact with a group of international students from the Asia Pacific Region in the second semester.

OBJECTIVES

The course aims to provide the candidates in their early and mid-career professions, an opportunity to enhance their basic knowledge on more contextualised and practical understanding on human rights and democracy. The design of the curriculum, teaching and learning methodology will enhance necessary skills of the candidates related to monitoring and preparing practical/advocacy related tools for human rights and democracy. In addition, the eventual objective of this course of study is positive influence of attitudes and perception of students in greater competence at working with human rights and democratisation defenders.

At the end of this programme, students will be able to:

1. Have an excellent knowledge of theory and practice of the promotion and protection of human rights and democratization.
2. Can undertake independent scholarly research on current issues in human rights and democratisation in the Sri Lanka and the Asia Pacific.
3. Have the capacity to put their academic understanding and practical experience to use in real contemporary situations.
